Lakota / Sioux Nation. – 5 more Plaques are available.
This year we will add a plague for the German Community in the Samford Valley.
Requested by Anita Ortlieb.

A little information for you:

A Peace Pole is an Internationally recognized symbol of the Hopes and Dreams of the entire Human Family.

There are more than 250,000 Peace Poles in 180 Countries, proudly standing in silent vigil for world peace.

Peace Lovers of all Faiths have been involved in Peace Pole Dedications, including XIV Dalai Lama, Mother Theresa, President Jimmy Carter, Deepak Chopra, John Denver, and many Mayors, Clubs and Associations.

In 1981 the United Nations General Assembly passed a Resolution 36/67 declaring an International Day of Peace. In 2001 the United Nations General Assembly adopted a new Resolution declaring September 21st of each year as The International Day of Peace.
Inviting all Member States, and organizations to commemorate the International Day of Peace, in an appropriate manner through education and public awareness..

We do hope that you will be able to join us.

A program for the day will be available by request from
